

2010 FORT RILEY BIG BUCK CONTEST

Sponsored by the Fort Riley Outdoorsmen Group

Are you the master deer hunter that can move like the wind, blend into the surroundings like a chameleon, and be in the right spot at the right time to get that monster Fort Riley Kansas Whitetail????

The contest is FREE and is open for the Fort Riley Deer Seasons. This contest supports the Quality Deer Management (QDM) program initiated by the Fort Riley Conservation Office by focusing on harvesting larger, more mature bucks, such as those pictured above taken on Ft. Riley! See attached rules for specifics.

2010 FORT RILEY BIG BUCK CONTEST

- ❑ You must possess a Fort Riley hunting permit, Fort Riley deer permit (free), Kansas hunting license, and Kansas either sex Whitetail or any deer tag through the state of Kansas. Reminder, Kansas is a 1 buck state.
- ❑ Deer must be a whitetail buck killed on Fort Riley during the open season on Fort Riley.
- ❑ Deer must be checked at the Fort Riley Environmental Office and will be scored by Fort Riley Outdoorsmen Group or Conservation personnel using highest Boone and Crocket Typical gross score for the winner.
- ❑ Deer must be checked no later than 24 hours after recovery. During archery season, if the Conservation office is closed due to a weekend or holiday, the hunter is responsible for bringing the rack in for scoring on the next available duty day – call 239-6211 to check if the Environmental Office is open.
- ❑ Buck must be properly tagged IAW Kansas state law, and hunter must present valid Fort Riley Deer permit and proof of identification.
- ❑ Contest entrants must certify that the buck was killed on Fort Riley using legal methods in the authorized season, and sign an affidavit attesting to the legality of the buck.
- ❑ If the final score of the top two bucks are within 5 inches, the FROG may call for a rescoring. Entrants must present antlers for rescoring when asked to do so.
- ❑ Entrants must grant use of photos and names to the FROG for publicity use.
- ❑ The FROG board reserves the right to disqualify any buck if the board believes that any of the rules of the contest were violated.
- ❑ Broken or damaged antlers will be considered whole if accuracy is assured beyond a reasonable doubt. All of the antler, broken portions included, must be presented to be eligible. Sheds are not eligible.
